Camp Directors

Coach Sean Kovar just finished his third season as boys varsity basketball coach at Dakota Ridge High School. He will serve as the camp director and will be assisted by other members of the Dakota Ridge boys basketball staff and current players from the varsity team. This camp will emphasize the fundamentals of basketball such as ball handling, passing, shooting, rebounding, and defense. Each athlete will compete in individual competitions and team competitions throughout the camp and learn about what it means to be a Dakota Ridge basketball player. The entire camp staff will be actively engaged, each player will receive individual instruction, and everyone will have a great experience!
